

Equality of Opportunity Monitoring Form (confidential)

The organisation strongly believes in promoting equality of opportunity in all aspects of its work, including the recruitment process. All information provided on this form will be used for monitoring purposes only to help us to continue to improve our work in terms of equality of opportunity (it is not used for any other purposes).

Where possible, this form should be returned separately from the Application Form. With this form being used for monitoring purposes only, you may choose not to complete the form or all sections of the form. The HR Department will ensure forms remain confidential at all times.
