

Recruitment Advert – Business Development and Projects Officer

College Development Network (CDN) supports and promotes the college sector in Scotland. Our mission is to maximise the impact of education for learners across the vocational and college system in Scotland. We deliver a dynamic programme of training courses, national conferences and high-profile events to support our mission.

Business Development and Projects Officer £ Competitive plus excellent benefits

A fantastic opportunity has arisen for an experienced Business Development and Projects Officer to join our team. We are looking for someone with enthusiasm and drive to take forward our plans in the development and expansion of CDN's projects and business development.

The role is pivotal in maintaining and expanding effective relationships with our stakeholders to support them through CDN's training and services.

We are looking for someone who has experience in business development / sales and in delivering projects. The role is varied and fast-paced, so you will need to have excellent communication and administration skills.

Based at our offices in Stirling, the role will involve travel throughout Scotland and wider afield to support our delivery.
