CDN is responsible for building the workforce across Scottish colleges, ensuring educational inclusion and economic opportunity for hundreds of thousands of citizens.

Colleges will be at the forefront of leading the nation's recovery from the Covid-19 challenge and CDN is at the heart of reimagining how colleges will organise, teach, support students and lead in these fast-changing times.

We are looking for a Press and PR Officer to help us raise the profile of our work to develop colleges of the future. The successful candidate will be motivated and ambitious, with experience of the media landscape in Scotland and the UK. You will be educated to degree level and ideally be a member of Chartered Institute for Public Relations. You will be a natural at spotting a story and turning around compelling content quickly for a variety of channels. You will have a strong contacts book and loads of creative ideas to keep us in the media. This is an exciting opportunity for an experienced journalist or PR professional to join our supportive, dynamic, and friendly team. Knowledge and experience of the education sector would be a distinct advantage.
