

Focusing on Socioeconomic Diversity and Inclusion

How would your organisation support staff and students from different socioeconomic backgrounds?

 Click on any icon to access resource

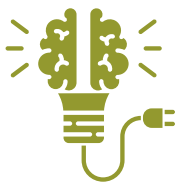

Watch: The Inclusion, Wellbeing and Equalities Professional Learning Framework supports anyone working with children, young people or adult learners in an educational context.

Read: Colleges Scotland 24 in 24 Blog Series – Colleges have a Critical Role to Play in Tackling Child Poverty.

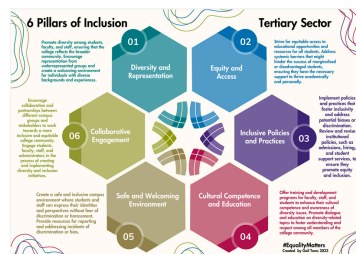

Listen: Understanding Poverty in Scotland with Pedagogy Matters in conversation with Jackie Galbraith, Principle of West Lothian College.

Learn: Understand the role of, and current challenges for, Scottish colleges in when it comes to supporting students from a socioeconomically diverse backgrounds.

Practice: West Lothian’s campaign, ‘Pennies Pantry’ takes a practical approach to supporting students who may be at a social and economic disadvantage to their peers. Tackling Poverty Together.

Free Infographic

1.1. Students at the centre

#EqualityMatters

Created by Gail Toms 2025

EQUALITY MATTERS @ CDN

Your Professional Development Digest for February 2025