EQUALITY MATTERS

Focusing on Supporting Transitions and Navigating Pathways

Helping learners successfully move into, through, and beyond tertiary education can be achieved by providing clear guidance, tailored support, and accessible progression opportunities. It ensures that all students, regardless of their background or circumstances, can make informed choices, overcome barriers, and achieve positive educational and employment outcomes.

Your Professional Development Digest for November 2026

College Development Network

WATCH

From SWAP

Scottish Widening Access and Participation

SWAP EAST Student Stories

READ

From The Scottish Funding Council

Report on Widening Access Aug 2026

LISTEN

From West College Scotland (WCS)

Ian's Story - Journey Through Scotland's Widening Access Programmes

FREE INFOGRAPHIC

LEARN

From SCAPP

An introduction into Widening Access and Participation

PRACTICE

From: STEP

Join the STEP Online Webinar on Supporting Transitions and Navigating Pathjways

CONNECT

Profesional Standards

1.1.1 Students at the centre: Understands student needs, the context in which they are living and studying, and the impact of these on learning.

UN Sustainability Goals

4: Quality Education, which aims to"ensure inclusive and equitable quality education and promote lifelong learning opportunities for all."

Inner Development Goals

Collaborating: Building strong partnerships across schools, colleges, universities, support services, employers, and communities to create seamless learner journeys