
EQUALITY MATTERS

Focusing on Anti-STALKING

Stalking is a pattern of repeated, unwanted behaviours that can cause significant fear and distress. In colleges and universities, staff play a vital role in recognising the signs early and ensuring those affected receive appropriate support and safeguarding.

Your Professional Development Digest for October 2026

College Development Network

WATCH

From TedX Talks:
'Overcoming Fear After Being Stalked | Robin Brockelsby'

READ

From Women's Aid:
'There is nothing romantic about stalking'

LISTEN

From the Suzy Lamplugh Trust:
Join Forces Against Stalking: Agencies in discussion

FREE INFOGRAPHIC

LEARN

From the Action Against Stalking Register for the CDN and Colleges Scotland Host Action Against Stalking Webinar

PRACTICE

From Police Scotland:
Identifying and reporting Stalking and Harassment

CONNECT

Professional Standards

Staff can apply learning to recognise concerning behaviours, respond to disclosures effectively and contribute to a culture where safety is prioritised.

UN Sustainability Goals

5.2 Eliminate all forms of violence against women and girls in public and private spheres, including sexual exploitation and other forms of abuse.

Inner Development Goals

Being:Acting ethically and professionally when responding to disclosures.